

27th June 2020

Hello all! It's great to be 'back' from holiday and I hope you are all keeping well. My sincere thanks to Julia for her messages from France, I think we've found a winner there.

I attach the paperwork for this Sunday and hope you'll be able to join us for our Virch Service at 9.30am. You may be aware that the government has said Churches may open for worship from next Sunday, 5th July. However, as of yesterday, they still haven't given any details and so we are waiting for that to happen before we can be clear about how we re-open at AwAS safely (very frustrating). I will, of course, keep you informed as things develop. I hope we can arrange some worship in Church from 12th July at the latest.

And finally...The vicar, passing an elderly gentleman attending his garden, remarked:
"How wonderful you and God have made your garden Harry". "Yes vicar", said Harry, "but you should have seen it when God had it on his own".
