

9th July 2020

Greetings dear friends, as you know the church was open last Sunday for our 9.30am Eucharist. It was lovely to have a congregation again instead of just me and a camera. We have learned a few lessons from that service and will make appropriate changes as we seek to make things work for those gathered in church and those viewing from home. It's a tricky balance to find but with a little time and patience, we'll get there.

With this Sunday in mind, I'd be grateful if you could let me know if you intend to come to the service this week. Space is limited by the social distancing restrictions and we don't want to be turning people away at the door! If you are still shielding, then you should stay home for the time being and continue joining us online. As things change we will adapt as best we can and let people know what our situation is.

On a different topic, I had cause to visit Okeley Nursing Home the other day and it was lovely to see our old friends for the first time in ages. We are going to attempt a Zoom service on Tuesday 21st July at 11am and I'll send details nearer the time if you'd like to join us.

As usual, I shall send information for Sunday with Saturdays e-pistle.

And finally...A member of the congregation was reading the lesson on Sunday, as he reached the bottom of the page he read "and Moses was sick". He accidentally turned two pages and continued "and the lot fell on Aaron".
